New Beginnings

Fri, 04/04/2014 - 06:31 -- rocala

I have just joined KGI. I am a keen cook and student of food. I am a lover of nature and the environment. I am passionate about sustainability. All of these interests lead to the garden.

I have never gardened. I was raised by keen gardeners but beyond helping out in other peoples places have never done it.

I am hoping to start next year when I move. In the mean time I hope to learn and develop a new passion.
