Nasturtium Butter

Sat, 06/14/2014 - 15:51 -- Roger Doiron

Introduction:

I came across this recipe while on my Tumblr account. The photo and recipe are the creation of a blogger [1] who refers to herself as someone who "loves heirloom vegetables" and "taking subpar photos" with her phone. I beg to differ on that last point!

Preparation:

Fold together and chill, covered for at least an hour. Overnight would be the best. Serve on warm bread or on cooked vegetables.
