ave SNOW and
gn so far is that I had crocuses.

I might have crocuses right now but they are under at least 5 feet of snow. Normally I could plant peas in a week or so but today I was pruning my fruit trees and I didn't need a ladder. The snow was deep enough and hard enough I could stand on it and reach most branches.

So enjoy the unseasonable warmth. I'll be shovelling snow of the garden beds and planting peas if you need me.
