Celebrate Spring with a Giveaway!

Thu, 03/22/2012 - 10:06 -- julieta

Finally, my friends?it's here.

SPRING! Tra la!

To celebrate my favorite season...

I'm giving away a ?Spring into Spring? gift to one lucky, randomly selected reader!

Look! Books! Plants! Seeds! And a tub!

The lucky winner will receive:

The Heirloom Tomato: From Garden to Table by Amy Goldman. This is a seriously gorgeous book, filled with stunning photography, amazing history, and recipes, too! It was the first book I bought when I began my heirloom adventure. (You'll get a new copy?not mine!)

Grow Great Grub: Organic Food from Small Spaces by Gayla Trail. This is a great how-to book. It's the perfect book for those who are land-challenged. Don't have a big backyard? No worries, you can grow a great harvest in containers! I like it, because even though we do have a yard, I still enjoy growing in containers on the balcony.

OK, maybe I'm lazy, but it's so nice to open a door, pick some herbs, and keep cooking dinner.

Plus?you get recipes! And instructions to preserve your harvest! You'll really like this book.

I'm also sending the winner some seeds from my favorite sources: Baker's Creek Heirloom Seeds [3] and Seed Savers Exchange [4]. Honestly, if you haven't visited these sites yet?please do. You will be amazed at the wonderful selections you'll find. (Plus, they're just really good people.)

Plus?who doesn't need a garden tub? I love these little tubs?they're great for collecting weeds, mixing soil with amendments, and carrying compostables to the bin.

And finally?the winner will receive six, organic heirloom tomatoes from Garden Delights [6]! (Yes, that's me!) The plants still need some more greenhouse time, but look at these roots, my friends! This is why I use organic, OMRI certified Dot Pots. When you plant these babies, you plant the entire pot?and the roots aren't disturbed.

For your chance to win the ?Spring into Spring? gift, please leave a comment at Growing Days [8] or on the Garden Delights Facebook [9] page, answering this very important question:

What is your favorite garden treat?

Are you a tomato girl? Love flowers? Can't wait for the first spring peas?

The giveaway begins NOW and will continue until April 1 at midnight EST. (And if you'd like to follow this blog or ?Like? Garden Delights on Facebook [9], I'd be most grateful?but it won't affect your chance to win!)

UPDATE: Because I'm new to this giveaway thing, I completely forgot an important note: the winner must reside in the contiguous United States. I can't ship plants to Alaska, Hawaii, or abroad (and honestly, you wouldn't want me to...those would be some very sad plants by the time they arrived! Sorry for any inconvenience...)

Happy spring to you!!!
